Trading goals leaves Byki short

The Over 35 Team continued on their goalscoring spree in the Miro Indoor Soccer League when they banged home six against Tatry FC last Thursday at The Max. Tatry, however, flexed their scoring muscles and went one better than the Byki to hang on for a 7:6 win. The Byki have three points from their two matches so far.

Marek Ciszewski notched his second consecutive hat trick and added an assist for good measure. Strike partner Michal Mitrega did his best to keep pace, with two goals and an assist.

Tatry jumped out to an early lead with two quick goals, but the Byki didn't need much time to get back into the game. Ciszewski and Mitrega combined on a give-and-go play right through the middle of the Tatry defense. Ciszewski finished the play with a shot into the far corner of the net to pull the Byki to within 2:1.

The sides kept exchanging goals in back and forth fashion. Alex Maruska answered Tatry's third goal with a shot that found its way home after Maruska's had intended to cross the ball into the mixer.

After Tatry went up 4:2, Maruska's hustle and hard work brought the Byki back. His high pressure on the Tatry goalie caused anxiety for the net-minder and Maruska deflected his clearing attempt. The ball wound up at Ciszewski's feet, who slotted home to make it 4:3.

A pair of goals from Mitrega kept the Byki in the hunt. Ciszewski returned the favor to Mitrega, who scored to make it 5:4. Shortly thereafter, a quick counterattack ignited by a combination play between Ciszewski and Dan Jedrzejowski created space for Jedrzejowski to slip the ball to Mitrega, who had made a run from the weak side. Mitrega fought off the challenge from a Tatry defender on his back and slipped the ball past the keeper to bring the Byki to within 6:5.

Ciszewski's hat trick leveled the affair at 6:6. After taking a pass from goalkeeper James Vlahakis that sent the play wide, Ciszewski turned quickly past his marker and fired a hard shot that found a sliver of space between the keeper and the goalpost.

Tatry scored the eventual game-winner and fought off a resolute Byki comeback at the end. The Byki got no closer than a late shot that clanged off of the goalpost.

Marek Ciszewski Dan Jedrzejowski, Alex Maruska and Doug Towsey contributed to this report.

BYKI LINEUP (2-3-1): Vlahakis – Jedrzejowski, Safford – Kotsy, Maruska, Elminssi – Mitrega. Bench: Ciszewski, Muehlbauer, Towsey.
